About the yacht

Antila 33.3 ‘Infinitum’ is a modern cabin sailing yacht. Compared with the Antila 33, it has a taller mast, a larger sail area, a separate shower compartment in the bathroom and a computer-designed ballast arrangement, supporting both sailing performance and onboard comfort.

This is a yacht designed for crews who are looking for functionality, well-thought-out details and high living comfort.

“Infinitum” has three enclosed double cabins and additional berths in the saloon. This layout gives the crew flexibility and works well on longer cruises.
